

COVID-19 PRIMARY CARE SURVEY

WEEK 12: May 22-June 1, 2020

CLINICIANS AND PRACTICES REPORTING

PRIMARY CARE DISCONNECT

There is a very large disconnect between how primary care clinicians perceive their patients value them and their work and how major players in the healthcare system value them and their work.

WHERE IS

THE LOVE?

Clinicians feel that hospital systems, health systems, and insurers don't value primary care (more than 30% each).

ON THE OTHER HAND...

Over 70% of primary care clinicians feel valued by their patients.
